

COMMANDING OFFICER
USCG LORAN-A TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE DETAIL
APO SAN FRANCISCO 96528

5800
21 April 1975

From: Commanding Officer, USCG Loran-A Technical Assistance Detail, Manila
To: Officer-in-Charge, Naval Legal Service Office, Subic Bay
Subj: Legal Assistance; request for

1. This command, due to its size and the nature of its mission, is without the expertise and physical resources to conduct courts-martial proceedings or render proper legal advice to its personnel.
2. It is requested your office provide, on a not to interfere basis:
  - a. Legal advice and assistance to members of this command, in line with that normally provided to members of the U. S. Navy.
  - b. Trial Counsel and Defense Counsel, as necessary, for court-martial proceedings.
  - c. Appropriate spaces for use in court-martial proceedings, equipment and/or personnel for the transcription of these proceedings.
3. On its part, this command will not reimburse your office for services of personnel or use of space, however will reimburse for actual cost of expended supplies.
4. For your information, no courts-martial have been convened since the establishment of this command, 1 June 1973.

L. J. BLACK, JR.