I've got some old undated black & white photos that I saved from the CO's files at the station when we decommissioned it. I've scanned them for my files. If anyone wants the originals or would like the jpeg files, let me know. Email me at emarmol@comcast.net

I was on Biorka from approximately March 1972 to April 1973 and was the station Damage Controlman. Was a DC3 at the time.

I was on Biorka from 1971-72 as a FN and made EN3 before leaving. I had such a good time I wrote a book about that experience called 'The Sea's Fury.' Be glad to hear from anyone that might have been there too and check out the book.

Hello all. I was a DC2 on the Island in 1975. I recently looked at Biorka on Google Maps and was surprised at the detail. I remember having to pump water once a week across the island through wooden stave piping.
