Any of my old crew out there? I was CO back in 83/84.

On 08/24/06 LCDR Mark Hudson said:

If anyone out there has, or know of someone who has old tech manuals and schematics for the AN/FPN-30 Timer, AN/FPN-T325 Transmitter, and the AN/FPN-1700 Amplifier, please let me know. It seems as this piece of history has been lost forever if we don't find a copy of it and get it into the right hands for preservation.

On 03/10/06 Herb Oertli said:

Hi this is Herb Oertli again. Sue Englebert is now a Captain (select). I remember what a change that was when she came on board. When the Loran alarm went red in the middle of the night, the watchstander would immediately run into the Loran nursery to fix it. Usually you were in your skivvies, and the CO (Englebert) would run up to check things out. Talk about embarrassing. Man, the stories about LTJG Hoffman and all the 'fun' we had when he was there.

On 01/18/06 Paul Zerbe said:

I was the ETC at Gesashi 86-87. Would like to hear from Dan King, ET1 Nickolson or any of the others. DC2 Ron Richert died in 89 I believe. And remember the party we had when Englebert left. Frank Choloski and his rendition of the 'witch is dead' was priceless. For those interest Sue Englebert is (the last time I checked 04) is CDR Englebert, CO of MSO St. Louis.

On 03/27/05 Sean Wiley said:

I was stationed there 85, 86. Great first time out . Lots of fun.

On 01/14/05 Bob Miller said:

Served at Gesashi from 12/87 to 6/88. Promotion from MKC to CWO2 cut my tour short. Proceeded to CGC Spencer in Boston, halfway around the world. Can't seem to recall if I was on vacation or 'isolated' duty.

I was SA striking for FN in Gesashi from June 86 - June 87. Plenty of good times at the Goat Meat Bar singing karaoke and drinking Orion beer. Great memories of Kadena, BC Street, Whisper Alley, and eating at the Genghis Khan. Trips to Nago and Naha was something I looked forward to. I miss all of the Gesashi village people. I was a survivor of the first female OIC, LTJG Englebert. Hey where are you Gary 'Doc' Mahoney?

After 16 mos. on Miyako Jima ('69-'70), I didn't care to be stateside. I left Group Mayport, 3 days after requesting ANY assignment overseas. I was damn lucky to get Gesashi! I was there '71-'72. In response to Dave Martin's apology: Hey man, a lot of us were young, messed-up jerks (well, not me, I mean the other guys).

On 02/05/00 Dave Martin said:

On GESASHI in 67 and owe all the people who were there then an apology. Sorry for being such a jerk. By the way my brother in law, Joe Rose MKCS was there in 68.

Station at Gesashi July 89-July 90. Anyone know where Ed Witalic or Patty Golden are? Would love to find them. Chris Feters, remember when you overslept on watch and Ed and I put the bagpipe music in the tape player. The XO was not happy.

I was a member of the commissioning crew under Command of Robert Gardner, LCDR USCG. It seems I arrived in September 1963 and departed in March or April of 1964. I was an HM2 transferred from the CGC SUNDEW to LORSTA GESASHI via LORSTA NIIGATA then subsequently transferred to LORSTA TOKACHIBUTO, HOKKAIDO. I will never forget the BOOMING of the Salute Cannon sounding every 30 minutes for several weeks after the assassination of JFK. Likewise I will never forget the over all experience, after all this was just 15 years after WWII.

I was stationed at LAS Naha and LORSTA Gesashi in 1969 & 1970. I got there an EN3 and left an EN2. This was one of the most memorable stays I've ever had anywhere at anytime. I loved it. I spent over a year at Gesashi in '67-'68 (I was extended for a couple of months). I have great memories of snorkle diving on the reef, and trying to avoid sea snakes. Who remembers the Habu? We would go south to service the shore aids, and find nests of them in the battery boxes. I would like to hear from any one who was there at that time. If anyone remembers a Seaman named John Thompson who was there at the same time, and extended 6 months, he was a good friend, and I would love to get in touch with him.
