I was an ET1 on Lorsta Miyako Jima 1955-56. I had the privilege to repair our Comm antenna by climbing a 80 foot pole in the tail end of a Typhoon. Loved the Ice Kiki house, the wonderful beaches, friendly people. It was 16 miles to Hirara on dusty roads. We wore extra cloths over our night out cloths so we were not so dusty when we got to town. I lost track of every one but I have started a LORSTA Miyako Jime group on Yahoo.

Yes I do. I also remember the old man telling Father Martin, the Greatest story ever told was a good movie, if you like science fiction. Dan Crum ET Larry. yes, I remember Hanagi and Shimogi. I have very fond memories of Miyako. The pink bar, grilled cheese with the movies and Father Martin. How are you, old friend?
