

Chapter 7 Wedding

We were invited to a local wedding.

The wedding party and the bride's mother.

It was unusual to see the natives dresser up, most of the time they wore very little.

The partying went on for three days dancing, singing, plenty of food and large jugs of rice wine with long reed straws so cups or glasses erer not required.

