Hi to all. I came aboard as an EN3 in 1970. I remember Vaughn, he offered to kick my ass at one time. Remember the beach rod we made out of a 1 1/2T Dodge? How about the clam digger and the beach parties. The DC and I built the bar in the rec room. I remember Cleo and B double a r slag. Transferred to Lorsta Lompong in Thailand in 1971.

I served aboard 70-72 as ET3/2. Harry Vaughn was my Chief when I arrived, then made CWO and returned to visit on the Basswood (with lots of San Miguel beer). Ran into Harry at Yorktown when I went to OCS. Hank Baarslag taught me how to suture and a lot of other Corpsman stuff. Great crew!

I served 70-71. Hello to Mike Bell (CO), Tom Aitchison (XO); Harry Vaughn (ETC); Ted Kuhn (SK); Cleo Hibbs (EN); Gene Fear (DC) and all other great shipmates. Mike, remember the 'snake that crossed the road?' Love to hear from you all; Hank Baarslag, HM2

Bill - better believe the cobra (or at least some kind of snake)story - notwithstanding it came from Hary Vaughan - it is accurate...by the way, did you ever receive your trunk from the island?

I still don't belive the bull"" story about the cobra attacking the jeep considering the source!!! It took me a long time to find this site and sure would like to heard from my Conson mates. SK3 there 69-70. At Sattahip 67-68 with Bo (Commando!!) Branch. Did someone bring Randy off the island when they closed up??
