I served at Lorsta Adak in 1966/67. I recently came across a website by a woman in Alaska who calls herself Taku Debbie (takudebbie.com). She visited Adak in August 2011, and has posted several photos of the old Loran Station, including the interior. The station is definitely still there, although in sad condition. The most active Loran discussion forum is the Loran A & C Vets Group on coastguardchannel.com. Best Wishes, Russ Marvin

The good news is that no one will ever be station at Adak Lorsta again. The bad news is if you google earth Adak Island and look for the station is a patch of dirt but the radio station is still standing. It looks like the parking lot was removed and its just flat dirt.
