Station inspected 11 November, 1963
Inspection made by Admiral E. J. Roland, Comd. R Adm C C Kruff
C14CGD

Instructions to Officer-in-charge as to condition of station, special work to be attended to, etc.

Conducted personnel inspection and inspection of equipment and facilities. There are discrepancies due to fault of contractor which are recognized by Commanding Officer and are in process of correction.

The appearance and morale of personnel is very good. The Commanding Officer has the situation at the station completely in hand and I am satisfied that the important mission of the unit is in good hands and will be carried out.

E. J. Roland, Admiral USA
Commandant

Station inspected 1 October, 1963

Inspection made by CAPT D.W. SINCLAIR, COMFESAC

Instructions to Officer-in-charge as to condition of station, special work to be attended to, et al.,

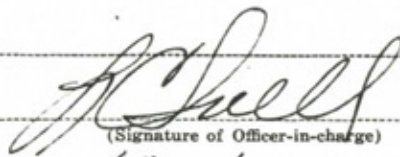

At 1245 this date I commissioned this Loran Transmitting Station MARCUS ISLAND as an operational facility of the United States Coast Guard. The first Commanding Officer is LTJG L.C. SNELL. Although the construction work is not complete this unit is equipped with the most modern electronic equipment and the crew is housed in typhoon proof barracks with excellent appointments. Having been given good "tools" to work with, the crew is charged to use them effectively.

Those present this date are congratulated for their participation during the construction phase. The inconveniences and discomforts created are fully appreciated.
